Agar Agar

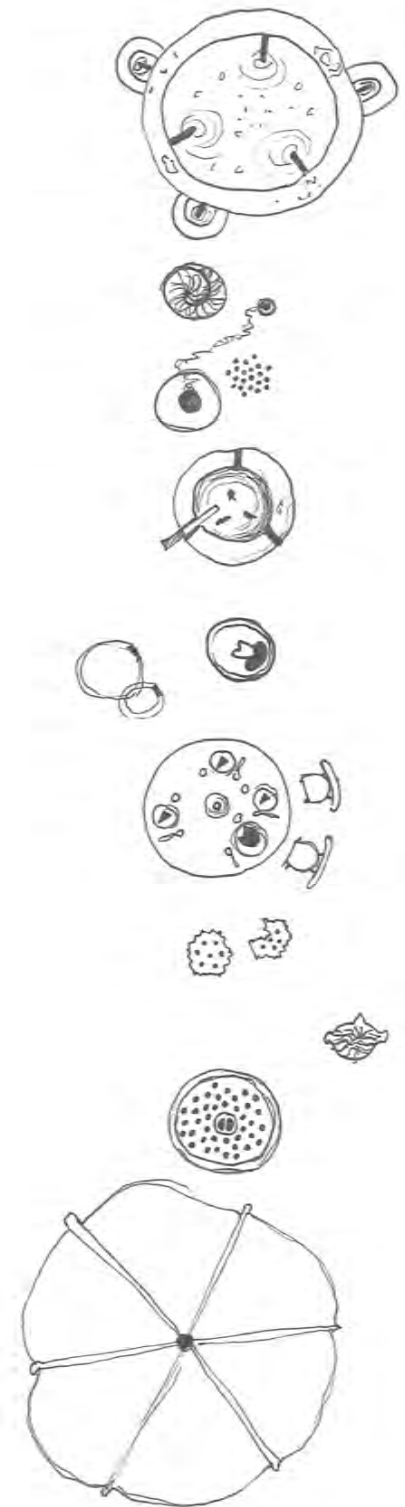

To ditch our cis cis face
She sees in the mirror
Life has changed since the frogs left the island
The animals survived under water but
Soon there won't be enough crackers

Cis cis cis cis cis princess
Drinks a strong alcohol
Shrink shrink shrink
The parrot
He touches the self
Aquarium aquarium city
When the city never sleeps
And cis cis drunk now
She falls

Pin pin the pad never says a word
He touches the self
Used to shrink shrink
Back in the days when the ocean was swell

Breathing in a bathtube with a tuba
Eating scrambled eggs on the sofa
Shrink shrink till the light gone down
In a bubble town
Shivering shivering till you hold your breath
Hypnotized by all the thing she said
Pin pin ways to die alone
Wearing a crown

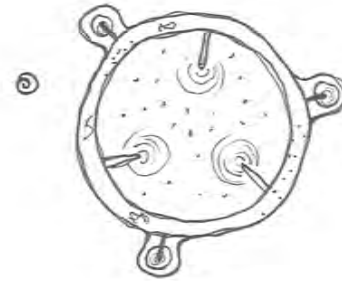

To ditch our cis cis face

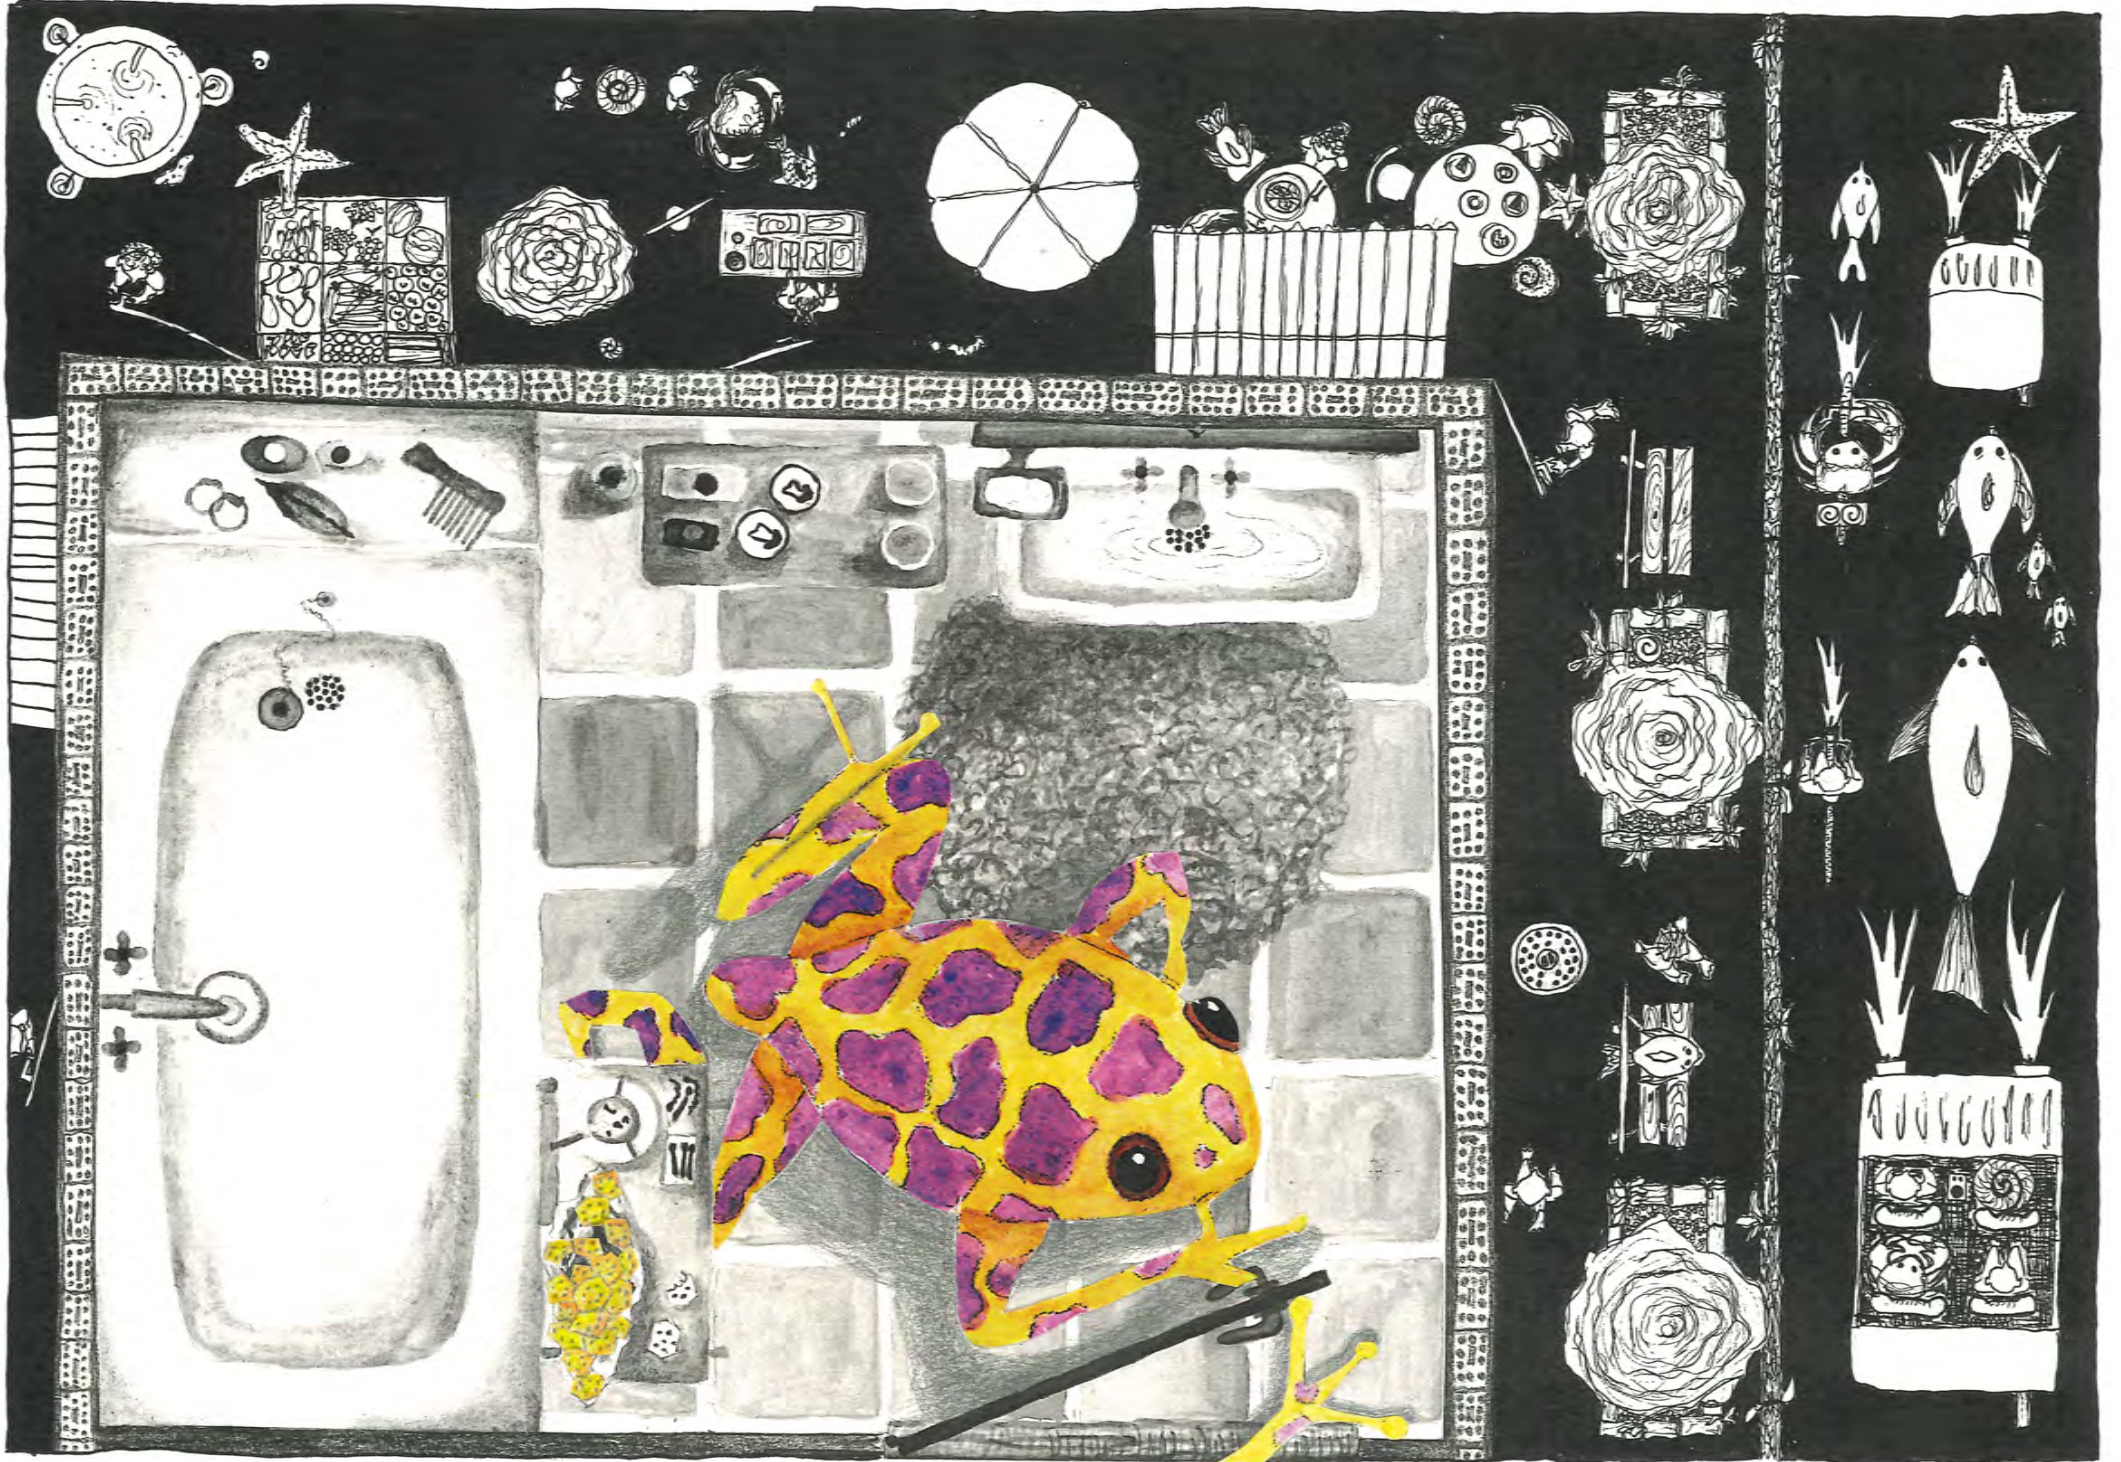

She sees in the mirror

Soon there won't be enough crackers
